	All Rights Reserved	Gregory Scott Katsoulis	When Speth Jime turns 15, she must pay for every word she speaks, for every nod, for every scream and even every gesture of affection. If she speaks words she can't afford, her eyes will be shocked. When Speth's friend Beecher commits suicide rather than work off his family's crippling debt, she can't express her shock and dismay without sending her own family into Collection. Rather than saying anything at all, she vows never to speak again, sparking a movement that threatens to destroy her, her family and the entire city.	Science Fiction / Dystopia
	Before the Fall	Noah Hawley	On a foggy summer night, eleven people--ten privileged, one down-on-his-luck painter--depart Martha's Vineyard, Massachusetts on a private plane bound for New York City. Sixteen minutes later, the plane plunges into the ocean. The only survivors are the painter, Scott Burroughs, and a four-year-old boy, who is now the last remaining member of a powerful media mogul's family. Was this an accident? Or was there something more sinister going on?	Thriller
	Erased	Kei Sanbe	Twenty-nine year old Satoru Fujinuma is floundering through life. When he isn't struggling toward his dream of being a successful manga artist, he's delivering pizzas. Amid his daily drudgery, he lives in the grip of an incredible, uncontrollable phenomenon which sends him back minutes in time, forcing Satoru to relive moments again and again until he has averted an impending disaster. But one day everything changes and Satoru finds himself eighteen years in the past.	Manga / Time Travel / Mystery
	Genuine Fraud	e. lockhart	Imogen lives at the Playa Grande Resort in Cabo San Lucas, Mexico. She spends her days working out in the hotel gym and telling other guests about how she was forced out of Stanford University. But Imogen isn't really Imogen. She's Jule. And she's on the run from something. Or someone. Which means...where is the real Imogen? Rewind. Jule and Imogen are close friends. Imogen is an orphan, an heiress; she and Jule spend a summer together in a house on Martha's Vineyard, sharing secrets. But that was months ago. Where is Immie now? And why is Jule using her name?	Realistic Fiction
	Heart in a Body in the World	Deb Caletti	When everything has been taken from you, what else is there to do but run? From Seattle to Washington, D.C. Annabelle is running through the mountain passes and suburban landscapes, from long lonely roads to college towns. She's not ready to think about the why yet, just the how--muscles burning, heart pumping, feet pounding the earth. But no matter how hard she tries, she can't outrun the tragedy from the past year, or the person--The Taker--that haunts her.	Realistic Fiction
	Hearts We Sold	Emily Lloyd-Jones	Dee Moreno is out of options. Her home life is awful and she's about to get booted from her boarding school--the only place she's ever felt free--for lack of funds. But this is a world where demons exist, and the demons are there to make deals: one human body part in exchange for one wish come true. The demon who approaches Dee doesn't trade in the usual arms and legs; he's only interested in her heart. And his deal comes with other strings attached. It's a nightmare far bigger, and far more monstrous, than anything she ever could have imagined.	Science Fiction / Fantasy / Romance
	Hope More Powerful than the Sea	Melissa Fleming	Adrift in a frigid sea, no land in sight--just debris from the ship's wreckage and floating corpses all around--nineteen-year-old Doaa Al Zamel floats with a small inflatable water ring around her waist and clutches two children, barely toddlers, to her body. The children had been thrust into Doaa's arms by their drowning relatives, all refugees who boarded a dangerously overcrowded ship bound for Europe and a new life. For days, Doaa floats, prays, and sings to the babies in her arms. She must stay alive for these children. She must not lose hope.	Non Fiction / Biography
	Love Hate & Other Filters	Samira Ahmed	Seventeen-year-old Maya Aziz is torn between worlds. There's the proper one her parents expect for their good Indian daughter: attending a college close to their suburban Chicago home and being paired off with an older Muslim boy her mom deems "suitable." And then there is the world of her dreams: going to film school and living in New York City--and pursuing a boy she's known from afar since grade school. But in the aftermath of a horrific crime perpetrated 300 kilometers away, her life is turned upside down. Ultimately, Maya must find the strength within to determine where she truly belongs.	Realistic Fiction
	Lying Woods	Ashley Elston	Owen Foster has never wanted for anything. But then his mother shows up at his elite boarding school with a secret: their privileged life has been funded by a stolen money and Owen's father has vanished, leaving Owen and his mother to deal with the fallout.	Realistic Fiction / Mystery

	Paris by the Book	Liam Callanan	When eccentric novelist Robert Eady abruptly vanishes, he leaves behind his wife, Leah, their daughters, and, hidden in an unexpected spot, plane tickets to Paris. Hoping to uncover clues--and her husband--Leah sets off for France with her girls. Upon their arrival, she discovers an unfinished manuscript, one Robert had been writing without her knowledge . . . and that he had set in Paris. Leah follows the path of the manuscript to a small, floundering English-language bookstore whose weary proprietor is eager to sell and Leah finds herself accepting the offer on the spot. As the family settles into their new Parisian life, they trace the literary paths of some beloved Parisian classics, including Madeline and The Red Balloon , hoping more clues arise.	Realistic Fiction / Mystery
	Perfect Candidate	Peter Stone	When recent high school graduate Cameron Carter lands an internship with Congressman Billy Beck in Washington, D.C., he thinks it is his ticket out of small town captivity. What he lacks in connections and Beltway polish he makes up in smarts, and he soon finds a friend and mentor in fellow staffer Ariel Lancaster. That is, until she winds up dead. As rumors and accusations about her death fly around Capitol Hill, Cameron's low profile makes him the perfect candidate for an FBI investigation that he wants no part of. Before he knows it--and with his family's future at stake--he discovers D.C.'s darkest secrets as he races to expose a deadly conspiracy.	Political Thriller
	Rebel Seoul	Axie Oh	EAST ASIA, 2199. After a great war, the East Pacific is in ruins. In brutal Neo Seoul, where status comes from success in combat, ex-gang member Lee Jaewon is a talented pilot rising in the academy's ranks. Abandoned as a child in the slums of Old Seoul by his rebel father, Jaewon desires only to escape his past. When Jaewon is recruited into the most lucrative weapons development division in Neo Seoul, he is eager to claim his best shot at military glory. As the project prepares to go public amidst rumors of a rebellion, Jaewon must decide where he stands--as a soldier of the Republic, or a rebel of the people.	Science Fiction
	Spill Zone	Scott Westerfeld & Alex Puvilland	Three years ago an event destroyed the small city of Poughkeepsie, forever changing reality within its borders. Uncanny manifestations and lethal dangers now await anyone who enters the Spill Zone. The Spill claimed Addison's parents and scarred her little sister, Lexa, who hasn't spoken since. Addison provides for her sister by photographing the Zone's twisted attractions on illicit midnight rides. Art collectors pay top dollar for these bizarre images, but getting close enough for the perfect shot can mean death--or worse. When an eccentric collector makes a million-dollar offer, Addison breaks her own hard-learned rules of survival and ventures farther than she has ever dared. Within the Spill Zone, Hell awaits--and it seems to be calling Addison's name.	Manga/Science Fiction
	Tattooist of Auschwitz	Heather Morris	In April 1942, Lale Sokolov, a Slovakian Jew, is transported to the concentration camps at Auschwitz-Birkenau. When his captors discover that he speaks several languages, he is put to work permanently marking his fellow prisoners. Imprisoned for over two and a half years, Lale witnesses horrific atrocities and barbarism--but also incredible acts of bravery and compassion. One day in July 1942, Lale comforts a trembling young woman waiting in line to have the number 34902 tattooed onto her arm. Her name is Gita, and in that first encounter, Lale vows to somehow survive the camp and marry her.	Historical Fiction
	Travelling Cat Chronicles	Hiro Arikawa	Nana the cat and his owner, Satoru take to the road on a journey with no other purpose than to visit three of Satoru's longtime friends. Or so Nana is led to believe. With his crooked tail--a sign of good fortune--and adventurous spirit, Nana is the perfect companion for the man who took him in as a stray. And as they travel in a silver van across Japan, they will learn the true meaning of courage and gratitude, of loyalty and love.	Realistic Fiction
	Want	Cindy Pon	In Taipei, Jason Zhou survives in a divided society where the elite use their wealth to buy longer lives. The rich wear special suits made by the Jin Corporation, protecting them from the pollution and viruses that plague the city, while those without suffer illness and early deaths. Frustrated by his city's corruption and still grieving the loss of his mother who died as a result of it, Zhou is determined to change things, no matter the cost. With the help of his friends, Zhou infiltrates the lives of the wealthy in hopes of destroying the international Jin Corporation from within. Can Zhou save his city without compromising who he is, or destroying his own heart?	Science Fiction
	Warcross	Marie Lu	For the millions who log in every day, Warcross isn't just a game--it's a way of life. Struggling to make ends meet, teenage hacker Emika Chen works as a bounty hunter, tracking down Warcross players who bet on the game illegally. To make some quick cash, Emika takes a risk and hacks into the opening game of the international Warcross Championships--only to accidentally glitch herself into the action and become an overnight sensation. Convinced she's going to be arrested, Emika is shocked when instead she gets a call from the game's creator, the elusive young billionaire Hideo Tanaka, with an irresistible offer. He needs a spy on the inside of this year's tournament in order to uncover a security problem and he wants Emika for the job.
